The Parklangley Club is a large members Club in Bromley. It is predominantly a racquets club for tennis, squash and badminton players with a large social membership.

The Parklangley Club has a 10-point plan:

1. To continue to be a leading racquets club in the South East
2. To provide excellent sports facilities to members
3. To promote youth sporting development across all sports and encourage the participation of all ages
4. To be a centre of sporting excellence working in partnership with sport governing bodies
5. To partner with the London Borough of Bromley to promote sport through local initiatives
6. To operate a profitable business model in order to maintain the Club's strong financial position
7. To maintain appropriate financial reserves for contingency spending and supporting potential new opportunities
8. To invest in existing and new facilities to improve the sporting and social experience for members
9. To provide excellent social facilities and to deliver a good service to members
10. To operate in harmony with local residents.

The Parklangley Club is a non-profit-making organisation owned by its members and dedicated to providing sporting facilities to the local community
